We, the creditor, refer the above account to you for collection and you are authorized to proceed at once to collect the amount due to creditor. Commission will be paid on all funds collected directly by Web Credit Services, LLC. and any funds paid directly to creditor. Commission will also be paid for the return of merchandise at invoiced value of said merchandise. Early cancellation of Web Credit Services, LLC.'s collection efforts may, at Web Credit Services, LLC.'s discretion, result in a charge of the full commission. You as our agent are authorized to accept payments and to endorse checks, notes, money orders or drafts for deposit; the net proceeds of which you are to remit to us. Any payments made directly to creditor will be reported to Web Credit Services, LLC. immediately. We also agree to immediately report to Web Credit Services, LLC. any communication that we may receive from the debtor. Creditor authorization is required to file suit or compromise the debt for a lesser sum. In the event litigation is deemed necessary, WCS will not initiate any form of legal action without prior written consent from CLIENT. When legal action is authorized, CLIENT will execute a written assignment of the account. Legal action will be brought in the name of WCS to further indemnify CLIENT. WCS will advance and pay all court costs, service fees, and advanced attorney fees on properly underwritten and approved accounts. WCS will retain all damages on bad check lawsuits, as awarded under CC §1719. All legal action accounts shall be charged at a rate of 40%.
